Sample Review Attestation Engagement Letter: A Comprehensive Guide for Accountants and Auditors

In the realm of financial reporting, clarity and professionalism are paramount. Whether you are a seasoned accountant or a budding auditor, understanding the nuances of engagement letters is essential to establishing clear expectations and safeguarding your practice. One of the critical documents in this process is the sample review attestation engagement letter. This letter serves as a formal agreement between the practitioner and the client, outlining the scope, responsibilities, and limitations of the review engagement. In this article, we delve into the essentials of a review engagement letter, explore its structure, and provide insights into crafting an effective sample that aligns with professional standards.

What Is a Review Attestation Engagement Letter?

A review attestation engagement letter is a written agreement that confirms the terms under which an accountant or auditor will perform a review of financial statements. Unlike an audit, which provides a higher level of assurance, a review offers limited assurance that nothing has come to attention indicating the financial statements are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.

Key Characteristics:

- Scope Definition: Clearly specifies what the review entails.
- Limited Assurance: Emphasizes that the engagement provides only limited assurance.
- Legal and Professional Clarity: Protects both practitioner and client by setting expectations.
- Basis for Work: Guides the review process and documentation.

The Importance of an Effective Engagement Letter

An engagement letter is more than just a formality; it is a foundational document that minimizes misunderstandings and disputes. For review engagements, it ensures that both parties agree on:

- The nature and extent of procedures performed.
- The responsibilities of management and the practitioner.
- The limitations inherent to a review.
- The timing and deliverables of the engagement.

Without a clear and comprehensive engagement letter, practitioners risk exposure to legal liabilities, scope creep, or misinterpretation of their role.

Core Components of a Sample Review Attestation Engagement Letter

A well-structured review engagement letter should contain several key elements, each serving a specific purpose. Below, we break down these components with detailed explanations.

- Header and Introduction

This section identifies the document as an engagement letter and states the parties involved.

Example:

?This letter confirms our understanding of the review engagement to be performed by [Practitioner's Name or Firm] for [Client Name] for the year ending [Date].?

Purpose: Sets the context and formalizes the agreement.

- Objective of the Engagement

Clearly articulate the purpose of the review.

Example:

?The objective of our review is to provide limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in conformity with [Applicable Framework].?

Purpose: Ensures both parties understand the nature and scope.

- Scope of the Review

Define what procedures will be performed and what is excluded.

Typical language:

?Our review will consist primarily of inquiries and analytical procedures. We will not perform an audit or comprehensive review of internal controls.?

Inclusions:

- Analytical procedures
- Inquiries of management
- Review of documentation

Exclusions:

- Testing of internal controls
- Detailed verification of assets and liabilities

Purpose: Avoids misunderstandings about the level of assurance.

- Responsibilities of Management

States management's role in preparing the financial statements.

Example:

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with [Framework], and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation of the financial statements.

Purpose: Clarifies that the practitioner relies on management's representations.

- Responsibilities of the Practitioner

Details what the practitioner will do.

Example:

Our responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with [Applicable Standards], which require us to plan and perform the review to obtain limited assurance that the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

Purpose: Establishes professional standards and scope.

- Limitations of the Review

Highlights the inherent limitations.

Example:

?A review is substantially less in scope than an audit and, therefore, provides only limited assurance. We will not assess internal controls or verify individual transactions, and we do not express an opinion on the financial statements.?

Purpose: Manages client expectations and legal liability.

- Deliverables and Timing

Specify what will be delivered and when.

Example:

?We will provide a report expressing limited assurance on the financial statements by [Date].?

Purpose: Sets deadlines and clarifies deliverables.

- Fees and Payment Terms

Outline the fee structure and billing arrangements.

Example:

?Our fees for this engagement will be based on the time spent at our standard hourly rates, plus out-of-pocket expenses. Payment is due upon receipt of our invoice.?

Purpose: Ensures transparency and agreement on compensation.

- Amendments and Termination

Conditions under which the engagement can be modified or terminated.

Example:

?This engagement may be modified only in writing signed by both parties. Either party may terminate the engagement upon written notice.?

Purpose: Provides flexibility and legal clarity.

FMLA Second Opinion Letter Sample: A Comprehensive Guide

Navigating the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) process can be complex, especially when it involves obtaining a second medical opinion. An FMLA second opinion letter is a critical document that can influence an employee's ability to take leave for serious health conditions, as well as an employer's understanding of the employee's medical situation. In this comprehensive guide, we will explore what an FMLA second opinion letter entails, its importance, how to craft an effective sample, and best practices for both employees and healthcare providers.

Understanding the FMLA and Its Requirements

What is the FMLA?

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) is a federal law enacted in 1993 that entitles eligible employees to take unpaid, job-protected leave for specified family and medical reasons. These reasons include:

- The employee's own serious health condition
- The birth or adoption of a child
- Caring for a family member with a serious health condition
- Addressing qualifying exigencies related to a family member's military service

FMLA Certification Process

To qualify for FMLA leave, employees must provide sufficient certification from a healthcare provider. This certification typically includes:

- The nature of the health condition
- The expected duration of the condition
- The need for leave and its frequency
- The healthcare provider's contact information and signature

Employers can request a medical certification and, under certain circumstances, a second opinion if doubts arise regarding the validity or accuracy of the initial certification.

The Role of a Second Opinion in FMLA Cases

Why Is a Second Opinion Needed?

A secondary medical opinion may be requested by an employer when:

- The initial certification appears inconsistent or suspicious
- The employer doubts the severity or duration of the condition
- There are discrepancies between the employee's statements and medical documentation
- The employer wants to confirm that the medical condition qualifies under FMLA criteria

Legal and Practical Considerations

Under FMLA regulations, employers have the right to:

- Require a second opinion at their expense before approving leave
- Have the second opinion conducted by a healthcare provider designated or approved by the employer
- Use the second opinion to make final decisions about leave eligibility

The goal is to ensure that leave is granted appropriately, based on accurate medical information, while respecting the employee's rights.

To Whom It May Concern,

Re: Second Opinion Regarding Employee: John Doe

DOB: 01/01/1980

Medical Record Number: 123456

I have been asked to provide a second opinion concerning the medical certification submitted by Dr. Alex Johnson regarding Mr. John Doe’s health condition.

Medical History and Initial Certification:

Mr. Doe was initially diagnosed with a severe herniated disc, resulting in significant pain, mobility limitations, and neurological symptoms. The initial certification indicates a need for leave starting on September 15, 2023, expected to last approximately 12 weeks.

Assessment:

I reviewed Mr. Doe’s medical records, imaging reports, and conducted a physical examination on October 20, 2023. The findings support the diagnosis of a herniated disc with radiculopathy, which significantly impairs his ability to perform daily activities.

Opinion:

Based on current findings, I agree that Mr. Doe has a serious health condition qualifying under the FMLA, and a leave of approximately 12 weeks is justified. The severity of symptoms and diagnostic evidence confirm the need for medical leave.

Prognosis and Recommendations:

Continued conservative treatment with physical therapy and possibly surgical intervention will be necessary. The prognosis suggests a recovery period consistent with the initial certification.

Please feel free to contact me for further information.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jane Smith, MD
