The Emergence of Langton's Perspective

Langton's approach to OB builds upon foundational theories while introducing unique insights into organizational dynamics. His framework emphasizes the importance of understanding the psychological and social underpinnings of workplace behaviour. Unlike traditional models that focus primarily on efficiency and productivity, Langton advocates for a human-centric perspective that recognizes employees as complex individuals with diverse needs, motivations, and influences.

- Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs: Employees are motivated by a progression of needs from physiological to self-actualization.
- Herzberg's Two-Factor Theory: Distinguishes between hygiene factors and motivators.
- Self-Determination Theory: Highlights autonomy, competence, and relatedness as key drivers.
- Implications:
- Tailoring motivational strategies to individual profiles enhances engagement.
